

TEMPLE SINAI SERVICES AND EVENTS

Day	Date	Time	Description
Fri	6/5	6:30 pm	KABBALAT SHABBAT SERVICE Oneg to follow. Link on website; password in your email
Sat	6/6	9:30- Noon	MORNING SERVICE and TORAH STUDY (Link on website; password in your email) One hour chanted Service 9:30 Torah Study 10:30 Parashat B'ha'alotcha (control+click) The people melt down; Moses melts down The people get sick, Miriam gets sick. Pray for healing.
Sat	6/6	9:00 Note time	HAVDALAH Facebook Live Temple Sinai Facebook Page
Sun	6/7	11 am	WHAT IS ANTISEMITISM? (registration required)
Fri	6/19	6:30 PM	SAVE THE DATE: Kabbalat Shabbat Honoring Juneteenth and Alissa's Bat Mitzvah
Sat	6/20	10:00am	SAVE THE DATE: Alissa Kenwood's Bat Mitzvah on ZOOM
Fri	6/26	6:30 pm	SAVE THE DATE: Kabbalat Shabbat with ELLIE FLIER

ZOOM SERVICES, CLASSES AND MEETINGS NOW REQUIRE PASSWORDS

Shalom Temple Sinai!

First, a few shout-outs!

-Mazel Tov to Anna Dauerman and the Dauerman family on her bat mitzvah! Like Nachshon, the first Israelite to walk into the sea before it parted, Anna was our Zoom pioneer. (Thanks also to David Punia, James Velastro and David Wright who spent hours setting up the cameras and technology.) Anna did job, and when it was over, her classmates had arranged a car parade to celebrate and throw candy at her! (control+click on picture for video)

-Mazel Tov to Alexa Davis on becoming bat mitzvah this Shabbat afternoon. It was planned on March 20, and was postponed due to the epidemic, but a small crew will be celebrating this Shabbat. They are not ‘zooming’ the ceremony, but videotaping, so you won’t be able to join us, be we wish Alexa and her family mazel tov!

-SAVE THE DATE: Kabbalat Shabbat in honor of JUNETEENTH and Alissa’s Bat Mitzvah. Join us for a celebration of Shabbat, freedom, and Alissa becoming bat mitzvah. Juneteenth (June 19) is the day that celebrates the African-American emancipation from slavery.

SAVE THE DATE. Please join us next Shabbat, June 20, at 10 am by ZOOM for the bat mitzvah of Alissa Kenwood at 10 am. Please join us by Zoom to support Alissa just like you did Anna Dauerman. It makes such a difference to have people join us.

ZOOM PASSWORDS NOW REQUIRED

A few days ago, my class on anti-Semitism was “Zoom-bombed” by a group of anti-Semites who took over the screen with pornographic images and swastikas, and posted similarly in the “chat.” We’ve changed and disabled some functions to make this less invasive, but I decided that we needed passwords to avoid the same thing happening at a bat mitzvah or concert. You’ve all gotten an email from us giving you the new password for all Temple Sinai services and classes with Rabbi Edleson. (The Wednesday History Group will continue passworded as in the past.) Please check that email to get the password because it WILL NOT BE ON THE WEBSITE, NEWSLETTER, WEEKLY EMAIL, OR FACEBOOK.

SAVE THE DATE: JUNE 26

A VERY SPECIAL SHABBAT SERVICE

Join us for a special Shabbat service, led by Ellie Flier, an emerging artist on the Reform Jewish music scene. An inspiring singer songwriter based in Nashville, she has found her passion and purpose in writing Jewish music, and listeners can't help but feel a palpable connection to her songs, whether calling for social justice or rising up in joyous celebration. The service will feature Ellie's songs and other popular songs from NFTY camps.

FRIDAY JUNE 26 6:30 PM

UPCOMING:

PRIDE WATCH PARTY. "OUT IN THE DARK"

For PRIDE this year, we are working on a 2012

watch party of for "OUT IN THE DARK," a Israeli film starring Michael Aloni (Shtissel) and Nicholas Jacob. It explores the relationship and complexities of the relationship between Roy, an Israeli lawyer, and Nimer, a Palestinian psychology student. Watch your email for dates and details of how to join the party!